Sunset Magazine For October.

The leading article in the Sunset Magazine for October deals with "California's Army Camp" at Ataseadero, but this western magazine of ragid growth is, as usual, full of other good features. Notable among them are a story, "The Hour of His Release," by Juliet Wilbor Tompkins; a poem, "The Wind's Word," by Ina Coolbirth; articles relating to western subjects, and so forth. As ever, this number of Sunset is profusely and handsomely illustrated, and the department features are good. Sunset is making good strides toward the
